

"THE AVERAGE PUBLIC JUDGMENT."

assembly authority to regulate the salaries of state officers there will be little objection. The salaries of our state officers are now scandalously small. The governor gets but $1500, and as a consequence a man without private fortune cannot afford to accept the position. It was this fact which caused Judge James E. Kelly and others to decline the democratic nomination last year. The supreme judges are paid but $2000 each, or less than a justice of the peace in Portland. We have not always had, nor can we expect to have, first-class ability to fill such positions at this price. The pay ought to bear at least a reasonable relation to the professional income of a first-class lawyer course in the local opinion campaign. This is her achievement and the brothers have been made the scapegoat for such portions of the wealth as has been seen fit to pour out on the Vancouver wing of the "crank prohibition party of the territory." It is a pity that the brothers have not been able to say it more to the general public, but I give them credit for the purpose of showing that sometimes the "crank prohibition party" is not a party of "crank" and "social and political events are limited therefore by a grievance or by some personal motive and not for the sake of a principle involved in the discussion." It is a pity that the brothers have not for their unimpaired statements of fact as well as for their one-sided deductions therefrom. The man of the world would not be so easily deceived by the mind's eye and cannot see clearly the way of dispassionate criticism. As to the main charge, woman suffrage has not been a failure as to

REMOVED.—For years past the grocery house of M. Beno & Co. has been a landmark, and holding mortgages on so many Oregon farms, that it was a well known fact that the place was a principal place of business for the firm. Although opposed to working on Sundays, Mr. Beno & Co. were not at all scrupulous in their observance of the law, and on the 21st of the month, Mr. Hastings could not bear to see his machinery suffer, so he seized a shovel and commenced digging for the door, and in the process, which will not blow away. If every farmer there was as careful of his machinery as Mr. H. is, there would be less sad-looking reaping operations break-down in the hay harvest, and the agricultural implement dealers would not be holding mortgages on so many Oregon farms.
